

SPRING BLOOM – page 8 - 15

The water in the fjord is salt; what is the water from the glacier?

Why does the bloom of life happen in springtime?

COPEPODS – page 16 - 21

How many copepods are there?

The copepod is a multicellular animal. What does that mean?

THE NORTHERN PRAWN – page 22 - 29

In Ilulissat the northern prawn is an important part of export fishing – and thus of what?

In the book krill is mentioned. Why is krill called the lawnmowers of the sea ice?

THE GREENLAND HALIBUT – page 30 - 37

The Greenland Halibut in the Icefjord are slightly fatter than those in the Disko Bay. Why?

What kind of fish is the halibut?

The polar cod is another important fish. Draw a cod.

THE HARP SEAL – page 38 - 45

What kind of swimming does the harp seal practice?

How can you see that the animal in the ice floe is a harp seal?

THE BOWHEAD WHALE – page 46 - 55

In Greenland narwhals are found too.

Which mythical creature may the narwhal be compared to?

Does the humpback whale live in Greenland all year?
